

(Session D continued)

– Introduction of the concept of erasure

– Concurrent Sessions

Each group will have a Facilitator, Recorder, and Observer. Participants will address the session topics and reconvene to share their findings with the collective.

- D.1 – Contributions of African women
- D.2 – Celebrating African women
- D.3 – Self-Care for African women

– Reconvene/Share

Closing Plenary Session

Room A, B, C

Briefly re-visit the goals and objectives of the African Liberation Day Conference

Moderator: Chavunduka Sevanhu, A-APRP

Workshop Description:

How do we take what was learned and further build Pan-Africanism in our communities? The closing plenary will review the goals of the day and urge all participants to join an organization to concretize an African United Front.

We will create a list of action-item resolutions prioritizing organizing activities this year

Please post photos as #ALD2017

FB, Twitter, Instagram, other social media

www.aaprp-intl.org

aaprp_illinois@yahoo.com

African Liberation Day 2017 Conference

Saturday, May 27, 2017

African Youth Organizing Against All Settler and Neo-Colonial Regimes: From DRC (Congo), to Standing Rock and Palestine!

Co-Sponsored by the All-African People's Revolutionary Party (A-APRP) and African American Studies Department, Chicago State University

Continental Breakfast

African Liberation Day around the World live stream

Drum Call—

Libation/Azania National Anthem/Prayer |

Revolutionary Greetings

Zizwe Tchiguka, A-APRP

“The Call for African Youth to Struggle for Unity At Home and Abroad”

Presenter: Dr. Kelly Harris, Professor-Chicago State University

Presentation Theme:

How revolutionary Ideology, consciousness, and revolutionary culture are the linchpin to achieving revolutionary Pan-Africanism.

Concurrent Workshops

Session A

Room A

“From the Congo to Chicago: One Africa”

Moderator: Clyde Banks, President, Division 429
UNIA/ACL

Workshop Description: This interactive discussion will explore why people of African descent living in America need to be concerned about Africa. Participants will discuss racial identity, nationality, religion, and ethnicity in relationship to land, culture, and quality of life.

Session B

Room B

“Immigration in the Age of Anti-Immigration Attitudes, Policies, and Actions”

Moderator:

Workshop Description:

This presentation will provide information on how Immigration Laws impact Africans on the international and local level.

Session C

Room C

“What’s New about Neo-Colonialism?”

Moderator: Pa Joof, Pan African Revolutionary Socialist Party

Workshop Description:

This workshop will look into the historical development of the various economic systems leading up to Neo-Colonialism, and highlight the contributions from past and contemporary resistance movements.

International Panel: Global Update Room A, B, C

Moderator: Joy Bah, All-African People’s Revolutionary Party

Workshop Description:

The panelists will give an update on current events related to their organizations and highlight their successes against a common enemy.

- American Indian Movement (invited)
- Rakwena Molefe M., Pan Africanist Congress
- Venezuela Consulate (invited)
- Palestine (invited)

12:15-1:00p

LUNCH

Rotunda

Keynote Address

Room A, B, C

“African Youth Organizing Against All Settler and Neo-Colonial Regimes: From DRC (Congo), to Standing Rock and Palestine!”

Presenter: Mark Fancher, All-African Peoples’ Revolutionary Party

Address Description:

Highlighting the importance of African Liberation Day and the need to galvanize the masses, especially the youth, to move forward to African Liberation

Panel Discussion

Room A, B, C

“The Old and New: What Do We Do, Where Do We Go From Here?”

Moderator: Mike Ridley, AAPRP

- Kofi Ademola Xola, Black Lives Matter, Chicago
- Taji Gaines, New Era Chicago
- Barbara Baker, NCOBRA

Panel Description:

Examining the concept of united fronts and explore ways that we can synergize Civil Rights veterans with young activists today

Concurrent Workshops

Session D

Room A, B, C

“Preventing the Erasure of African Women”

Moderators: Tyanna Clayton, Joy Bah, A-APRP

Workshop Description:

Attempts to erase African Women from history continue to be a challenge in resistance movements. There is hope, as society has seen an upsurge of African women challenging patriarchal and White supremacist spaces. This session will look at all aspects of the work, contributions and perspectives of women in the struggle and discuss ways to ensure African women are not erased from the revolutionary movement. (Continued on back page)